Intellectual Property Prospector identifies United States and Canadian companies with more than $1 million in assets filing for bankruptcy or reporting other financial difficulty and profiles their ownership of intellectual property. The Prospector features companies that meet strictly defined, predetermined criteria and is designed to support the efforts of firms and individuals interested in identifying opportunities in the specific area of intellectual property, which includes patents, trademarks, trade secrets, and licenses, among others. Information is compiled weekly and the Prospector is distributed by email every Sunday evening to arrive before 9:00AM every Monday. The Prospector is published by Beard Group, Inc. (http://BeardGroup.com). For subscription information call Customer Service at 240-629-3300, ext. 27.

Prospector Profile Selection Criteria:

In order to appear in the Intellectual Property Prospector, a company must report ownership of intellectual property assets, as well as one of the conditions listed below:

- An event which indicates financial distress; e.g., default, distressed exchange offer, preferred dividend omission, debt at deep discount, restructuring, low rating, audit concerns, covenant problems, and loss/deficit.

- Chapter 11, 7, or 15 bankruptcy filing

- Section 363 Sales

DISCLAIMER: The conditions for inclusion in the Prospector are selected by the editors, because, in their opinion, the occurrence of such an event or the existence of such a circumstance is a likely indicator of current or prospective financial or operating difficulty. There are, however, other reasons why such facts or circumstances may exist. The inclusion of a profile suggests the possibility of financial distress or the possibility that the company may be of interest to firms and individuals interested in identifying intellectual property for some other reason. Inclusion should not be construed to represent analysis of the condition of the company or its intellectual property or a definitive determination that the company is in difficulty.

ACCURACY & COVERAGE: The information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be reliable. However, the accuracy of most data cannot be verified prior to publication, and the information is not guaranteed. Desired information is often incomplete, inaccurate, delayed or unavailable. Do not rely on the Prospector without independent verification.

SUBSCRIPTIONS: Subscription rate: $575 for six months, payable in advance. All subscriptions entered are continued until canceled. For subscription information call Customer Service at (240) 629-3300, ext. 27.

Category: Low Rating

Event: On November 20, 2006, Moody's Investors Service downgraded the ratings of Pathmark Stores, Inc., including corporate family rating to Caa1 from B3; probability of default rating to Caa1 from B3; and $350 million guaranteed 8.75% senior subordinated notes due 2012 to Caa2 from Caa1. The downgrade was prompted by Moody's concerns that the Company's weak profit margins could continue to erode given the competition in its narrow trade areas; that it is unlikely in the near term that the Company will become self-funding; and that the Company is thus reliant on its bank credit agreement that contains covenants that may have only modest cushion over time if profitability becomes even weaker.

Intellectual Property: The Company has registered a variety of trade names, service marks and trademarks with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, including "Pathmark." The Company considers its Pathmark service marks to be of material importance to its business and actively defend and enforce such service marks. [SEC Filing 10-K 04-07-06]
